C.2

1964

MR 64

Santa Clara takes its rightful place in the sun as one of California's most progressive Cities on this day, February 29, 1964. This day belongs to the people of the City of Santa Clara. Their new and beautiful City Hall was built at a cost of $1,445,000. The 75,000 sq. ft. building provides for the citizens, Council Chambers, capable of accommodating 300 persons at one time, a drive in window to accommodate the city's utility customers and a host of new offices planned and designed for present and future needs.

Architect—L. F. Richards, A.I.A.

This Building
